BNB Titaniumz Titanium Alloy Catback Exhaust for Audi RS6 RS7 C8 4.0T

CAD $3,177.50

This titanium alloy catback exhaust system is precision-engineered for Audi RS6 and RS7 C8 models with the 4.0T engine, delivering a significant performance upgrade and a deep, aggressive exhaust note. Constructed from lightweight titanium alloy with a 1.35mm wall thickness and 73mm diameter piping, it reduces weight and improves exhaust flow. The system features an electronic valve with remote control, allowing you to switch between quiet and sport modes. Backed by a 1-year warranty, this bolt-on replacement is designed for direct fitment and includes all necessary hardware.
